Order

No. HD-43-14/70-A

Subject: — Disposal of confiscated and forfeited firearms.

Arms and ammunition which are forfeited to Government under section 21 of the Arms Act, 1959 or confiscated under orders of the Court passed under section 32 of the said Act or under the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 or any other law for the time being in force, provided the Court has not laid down in the judgement any direction for their disposal, or arms lying in the police custody which were not claimed by the owners within the stipulated time limit fixed by the Licensing Authority, as defined in the Arms Act, 1959 shall be disposed of by the District Magistrate in accordance with the following directions:

1. All forfeited and confiscated arms and ammunition in the Armoury of Police Head Quarter, Panaji, shall first be classified into (a) serviceable and (b) unserviceable categories.

2. The serviceable firearms shall be classified further into (1) prohibited bore weapons and (2) non-prohibited bore weapons and disposed of in the following manner:—

(i) The firearms of prohibited bore which can be utilized by the police or any other Government Department may be retained and brought into use. Pistols, revolvers, rifles and muskets of prohibited bore as well as non-prohibited may be loaned out to the Government servants who are authorised to keep them as part of the equipment or who by the nature or their duties require the protection of a weapon.

(ii) The firearms of prohibited as well as non-prohibited bore shall be classified into five broad heads viz.

(i) B. L. Guns, (ii) M. L. Guns, (iii) rifles, (iv) pistols and (v) revolvers. Ten percent of the entire stock of rifles, pistols and revolvers and 25 per cent of the B. L. Guns shall be set apart and assigned to the saleable quota of the Armoury of Police Head Quarters, Panaji meant for sale to the public in accordance with the directions set forth in sub-clause (iv) and the rest shall constitute a reserve of firearms to be utilized in emergency.

(iii) No limit need be observed in respect of M. L. Guns which may be sold freely for crop protection to agriculturists at reasonable price to be fixed by the District Magistrate, Goa, after consulting the local arms dealers, if necessary or in any other manner considered appropriate.

(iv) The firearms in the saleable quota of Armoury of Police Head Quarters, Panaji (except M. L. Guns) shall be sold under the orders of the District Magistrate, Goa, through public auction to the highest bidder. The auction shall be open to all the licencees of this Union Territory including Government servants, who will not, however be given any preference over other licencees. Arms dealers will not be eligible to bid at these auctions. The District Magistrate, Goa shall fix a minimum price for each weapon put to auction having regard to the condition of weapon and its market price and no weapon shall be auctioned if the bid is lower than the minimum price so fixed. Government may in special circumstances also permit the sale of a weapon out of the saleable quota to a person entitled to possess the weapon at a reasonable price to be fixed by the District Magistrate, Goa.

(v) The procedure set forth in sub-clause (iv) above shall not affect the sale of the M. L. Guns which shall be disposed of in the manner indicated in sub-clause (iii).

(vi) No weapons out of the reserve shall be sold or loaned out except under the express permission of the Government.

3. The arms and ammunition not disposed of under clause 2 above together with unserviceable arms shall be disposed of in the following manner:—

(i) All revolvers, pistols and rifles of prohibited bores shall be sent to the nearest ordnance Depot if of service pattern. Small arms and ammunition and of prohibited bore, shall be sent to the nearest Ammunition Depot. All other ammunition of prohibited bore shall be disposed of in consultation with the Chief/Circle Inspector of Explosives.

(ii) Arms and ammunition not disposed of under sub-clause (i) shall be destroyed in the presence of Police Officer not below the rank of Deputy Superintendent of Police or Sub-Divisional Magistrate.

This Order issues with the concurrence of Government of India, Ministry of Home Affairs, New Delhi—vide their letter No. F.22/2/69-P.4-GPA.II dated 23-2-1971.
